About

Radio Pachuco began its musical life as a classic swing and jazz band. However, influences of the 1950's, classic film themes and current music began to inspire the band.

Combining their love of old and new music, Radio Pachuco offered up “pop-swing” by remastering modern favourites into vintage style tunes which sit happily alongside jazz standards. Old and young find themselves dancing the night away in their own personal nostalgia.

Our lineup is male and female vocals, clarinet, saxophone or trumpet, guitar, electric bass and drums.

Music

Our set is a mix of classic swing, rock and roll, and modern songs with a vintage twist.

We are happy to take one song request per event, if there's a something special you'd love to hear.
